ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For State Treasurer.

We are informed to announce H. H. HENNINGER, Wayne county, a candidate for the office of State Treasurer, subject to election of the Democratic party.

TO THE CONFERENCE.

In our last issue we pointed out some of the advantages of this town as the place for our Methodist Brethren to locate their school, to build and maintain a strong and profitable institution of learning. We did cover the field of advantages, neither will we attempt to reach the limit in this issue. In addition to our statements, heretofore presented, we desire to call attention to the following important considerations worth much to a school or to any other business enterprise as follows. It is a healthy location, free from malaria and other diseases common to many localities of low altitudes. It is high and dry and several beautiful and commanding locations are here from which a selection can be made. It owes for no improvements to anyone substantial industries, bidding adieu to the "go-easy" gait that has crippled its growth in the past. Again, the county is out of debt and the spirit of public improvement is manifesting itself in every quarter. Two years ago two good substantial iron bridges were built, another will be built this month and others yet needed will follow in due course of time. Our County Judge and Magistrate have purchased road machinery and have demonstrated the great worth of good roads which has the hearty endorsement of the entire people. Columbia will, in a very short time, be the central point of the best public roads of any section South of the wealthy counties of Central Kentucky—a feature of advantage not common to Southern counties. We call attention to the vast territory comprising several counties in this section, that has no school, and are forced to send their sons and daughters out to institutions at great disadvantage. No effort has been made to induce the people of this section to aid in establishing your school and many are not advised of your intentions.

In a former article we called attention to the fact that an Electric Line from this place to Campbellville was assured, that the building of this road would increase the desirability of this town as the place for your school. It would likewise increase the value of any school property secured here. We have made a partial canvass of the business men of this town, meeting a few of the country people also, and we submit their statements as evidence that the people of Columbia and of the county, irrespective of faith or creed, are anxious for the school and will go down into their purses to aid you in establishing it. Already a beautiful location of nine acres has been tendered you by a business man of this town, Mr. J. O. Russell. No better location could be selected within our limits. Below we give expressions of many busy and professional men of our town.

Mr. M. C. Winfrey, Merchant, states that he is anxious for the school.
Miss Mary Smith, dealer in groceries, "I am in favor of the school and hope Columbia will get it."
W. W. Jones, Circuit Judge, "I am in favor of the school."
Mr. J. W. Jackson, Saddler, "I am heartily in favor of the school and trust that we will secure it."
Mr. James Beard states: "I am in favor of the school and will assist in securing it."
Mr. J. C. Dobson, a good farmer and stock man, states: "I trust that the school will be located in Columbia and I am willing to prove my faith by my work."
Mr. N. M. Tott, Dept. Circuit Court

Clerk, states: "I heartily endorse the move to secure the school. I am willing to aid it and trust that the Methodist people will see the importance of this location and that our people will likewise see the worth of the school."

Mr. T. R. Stultz, County Clerk, "I favor the school and will give both money and time to secure it."

Mr. L. B. Hurt, Master Commissioner: "I am for anything that will improve our town in a business or moral sense. I favor the school and will cheerfully assist in securing it."

Mr. J. B. Coffey, Circuit Court Clerk, "I favor the school and will contribute."

Mr. H. Marcum, proprietor Marcum Hotel: "I am strictly in favor of the school. Every effort should be made to secure it."

Mr. Julius Hancock, proprietor of the Hancock Hotel, states as follows: "I am in favor of the school and I will give assistance in securing it."
M. Craven, Druggist: "This is the location for the school and I am unreservedly for it."

J. F. Montgomery, Lawyer: "I will not express myself at this time."

D. N. Page, Druggist: "I am for the school if it can be secured."

Dr. C. M. Russell: "I am in favor of the school and would be glad to see the Training Institute located here."

J. O. Russell, Merchant: "I am so much in favor of it. I have offered them about 9 acres of land on which to erect the buildings."

W. L. Walker, Merchant: "I am very much in favor of the school and trust that it will be located here."

Hughes & Coffey, Merchants: "We are very much in favor of the school. It would help the denomination who endorses it and it would build up the town. Let her come."

W. F. Jeffries, Seeds and Farm Implements: "I am certainly in favor of the school."

Scott Montgomery, Merchant: "Great goodness yes, I am for the school."

Frank Sinclair, Merchant: "I am very favorably impressed and would be willing to donate for the support of the school."

T. E. Paull, Druggist: "I am working for the school daily and will donate for its establishment in Columbia."

W. A. Coffey, Banker: "I am in favor of the school and will do all in my power to have it located in Columbia."

Bollie Hurt, Lawyer: "I hope that it will be located here. This is the logical site for it, if it is intended to be located in the Columbia District."

Reed & Miller, Grocersman, "We are the best interest of the community, and of course we favor the establishing of the Methodist Training school at Columbia."

E. C. Attie, Traveling Salesman, "I am strictly for the school."

Bradshaw & Bradshaw, Hardware, Buggies—"Yes indeed, we are for the school."

Sam Lewis, Produce dealer, "I am heartily in favor of the school."

Bram Vaughan, Groceriesman, "I should think every body ought to favor the school."

James Garrett, Jr., County Attorney, states, "Columbia is the center of a large Methodist congregation who would support the school by any means of the other denominations that would patronize it. A large school could be maintained here and we should 'go after it' in earnest, and as for myself I am heartily in favor of it and will contribute to it."

Mr. K. M. Staples, Farmer and Livestockman, states, that he is for the school "teeth and toe nails" and will assist in securing it."

Hon. L. T. Nest is outspoken in favor of the school and will contribute to the fund to aid it.

Mr. S. D. Barber, Livestockman, states, "I am heartily in favor of the school and will do anything reasonable to secure it."

Mr. James Suddarth a good farmer, desires the school.

Mr. W. T. Dobson, a leading farmer, states, that he is decidedly in favor of the school and will contribute.

Mr. Geo. W. Robertson, Farmer and Livestockman, says he is in favor of the school and will contribute.

Judge James Garrett states that he feels that the Methodist church in this town should take the lead in this matter, that if it fails, that it will be due to the want of action of this church. He is heartily in favor of the school, believing that it would be a great blessing to this section and that the territory is ample to sustain it.

Emile Zola the noted French novelist, is dead from asphyxiation.

Republican platforms are being made both for and against the trusts.

The biggest infants in all the world are the ones protected by the Republican party.

Hon. F. J. Campbell, of Palasky, highly appreciates the honor conferred upon him by Democrats of Adair and Russell, who instructed for him for Congress.

The great State Fair is over. It was a big show and drew thousands of people to Louisville.

The available supply of wheat was cornered in Chicago last Tuesday and the price went to 95 cts., the highest since 1898.

The Kentucky soldiers who enlisted in the war with Spain, will be paid extra about $50 each. The money will be paid the last of December.

A Massachusetts Republican nominee for Congress is preaching free trade. He is outspoken in favor of free iron, free coal and free hides. He is evidently a traitor to "infant industries."

The argument in the Caleb Powers case closed last Wednesday. All the Judges of the Court of Appeals were sitting excepting Judge Guffy. A decision will be rendered in a few days.

Hon. C. C. McChord, the present incumbent, was unanimously nominated by the Democrats for Railroad Commissioner, Second district. The convention was held at Frankfort.

If a Kentucky Republican convention should show any signs of tariff revision as expressed in Iowa and other sections, the whole country would charge it up to the Democrats now laying around the Republican pie counter.

The Democrats of the Eleventh Congressional District met at Corbin, Whitley county, Tuesday, the 30th inst, and nominated Hon. J. P. Harrison, of Wayne, to make the race against Mr. Boring.

The resolutions adopted in a declaration of sound Democratic principles. Mr. Harrison are young and vigorous and will make an active canvass. The News will give him its hearty support, believing that every Democrat in the district will do likewise.

Col. E. H. Taylor has withdrawn from the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor, Col Taylor announced his decision from Chicago to a personal friend at Frankfort. His business interests will necessitate his absence from the State, hence his withdrawal. It is also intimated that Hon. J. D. Black will not enter the contest.

Hon. John K. Hendrick has opened headquarters at Frankfort, and will deliver his opening speech of the campaign at Hopkinsville next Monday.

Wall street was greatly excited last Monday and there were big drops in all stocks. The Louisville and Nashville fell nearly 11 points, paucity is said to have been the result of a concerted movement of the banks, which were determined to put an end to the inflation of values. To accomplish this, call money went as high as 85 per cent. Secretary Shaw, to further relieve the money market, announced that hereafter banks will not be required to hold reserve against Government deposits secured by Government bonds.

Doubtless the most expensive strike that American miners ever waged is the one now on. For twenty weeks thousands of them have refused to work and the coal supply rapidly diminishing, or falling great loss and discomfort to many industries. The struggle is the greatest battle ever fought between organized labor and capital and will be a great victory to the winner. The one is making a desperate effort, heroic struggle to establish equitable prices and terms for the sweat of the brow, the other showing obstinate resistance to protect the avenues to wealth and luxury. In the battle between the pleadings of oppressed laborers and the exacting demands of wealthy mine owners, our sympathy goes out to the former.

The completion of the Louisville and Nashville merger was officially announced last Tuesday in New York. J. P. Morgan & Co., will exercise their option on the 206,000 shares of the Gates syndicate, paying 150. The stock of the Westerns about 148.

J. P. Morgan & Co., will turn that block and 100,000 shares additional over to a syndicate which is to provide $45,000,000 for the purchase. This syndicate in turn is to sell the 206,000 shares to the Atlantic Coast Line Company for $10,000,000 cash and $85,000,000 in 4 per cent. fifty-year collateral trust bonds, secured by the 800,000 shares of Louisville and Nashville and $5,000,000 of Atlantic Coast Line stock. Morgan is to receive $1,000,000 as his commission for carrying through the deal. No provision is made for the minority stockholders, but it is said their rights will not be infringed upon. The new company will not be hostile to the Seaboard Air Line.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. J. A. Akin, Princeton, is here.

Rev. B. F. Orr and wife, Taylor county, are here.

Rev. T. H. Morris, an old newspaper man, called to-day.

Mr. J. H. Judd left for Abertonsville last Wednesday morning.

Mr. Owen Polley, Polityton, was upon the square yesterday.

Rev. W. T. Davenport is here greeting his members of former days.

Mr. E. T. Willis, of Cave City, is visiting friends here this week.

Rev. D. S. Bowles and J. S. Chandel, former Columbia pastors, are here.

Mr. A. W. Pedigo, Glasgow, was in Columbia yesterday, enroute for Louisville.

Mrs. Ellen Wheat and Mr. Sam Wheat, Montpelier, are here this week.

Judge J. W. Atkins is not doing so well and his condition is now regarded as very critical.

Mr. J. W. Hutchins has returned to New York. He will probably return in a few weeks.

Mr. J. J. Simpson, formerly County Judge of Cumberland, is mingling with the ministers.

Mrs. Jesse Williams (ne Miss Lillie Baker), of Greensburg, was visiting here Thursday and Friday.

Judge W. W. Jones will hold his next court at Tompkinsville, beginning on the 6th of this month.

Mr. D. F. White, of Tarter, will leave for Illinois in a day or so where he will make his future home.

Rev. Frank Thomas, who was Chaplain Third Kentucky, Spanish-American war, is with the Conference.

Mr. W. E. Thomas, a prominent young man of Tompkinsville, who will enter Conference later, is here attending the sessions.

Rev. A. L. Melli is here, and when next in Conference is mingling with his old friends. He was pastor in Columbia seven or eight years ago.

Mr. John L. Wheat, a prominent business man of Louisville, and well-known to the merchants of Columbia, is a delegate to the Conference.

Rev. S. L. Coward, who made many friends in Columbia during his pastorate, ten years ago, is again with us. He is accompanied by his wife.

Rev. Steel, one of the most prominent ministers in attendance, delivered a very able discourse at the Methodist church yesterday forenoon.

Rev. J. S. Scoobe, of Louisville, is said to be the oldest minister present attending Conference and Rev. C. C. Prather is said to be the youngest.

Mr. J. S. Dunbar, a leading wholesale boot and shoe man, of Nashville, was in Columbia Wednesday, on his return home from Russell county.

Rev. John Thomas stayed with his wife until the last hour, preaching at Polityton Tuesday night. He is known to be a good man and an active worker.

Every body was glad to see Rev. J. S. Thompson, a former pastor of the church here. He is an excellent preacher and his genial disposition wins friends where ever he goes.

Mrs. J. H. Albright, of Broadhead, Ky., is in Columbia in the interest of the Maccoches. Mr. Albright was here two years ago and formed quite a number of acquaintances.

Rev. Jesse L. Murrell and wife are here attending Conference. Bro. Murrell was formerly Presiding Elder of Columbia district and was a popular minister throughout his territory.

Rev. J. S. Crandall, of Florida, is attending the Conference. He brought from his warm, sunny southland a Japanese persimmon full 3 inches in diameter, which he says is a delicious fruit.

Mrs. Martha Pollard, an old and highly respected lady of the Missouri country, is dangerously sick but little hope of recovery. She is the mother of Mrs. John Morrison, of this town.

Rev. J. T. McCormick, wife and son, came in last week. Mr. McCormick is well acquainted over the county and his friends were glad to see him. A number of years ago he was on the Columbia circuit.

Rev. L. W. Kilgore arrived at the beginning of the session and is stopping with his family who are at the residence of Mrs. Kilgore's father, Mr. J. N. Wood. Rev. Kilgore did good work while on this circuit.

Rev. L. W. Watson, the heavy weight Minister of the Louisville Conference, is here. He weighs 300 pounds. Mr. Watson is not only a large minister in appearance but also the reputation of a broad man intellectually all of which is evidenced in his expression.

Rev. Barney Butler, who is very pleasantly remembered by a number of our citizens, is a member of Conference. Two years ago he held a very successful meeting in Columbia, delivering many telling sermons. His home is at the residence of Dr. J. H. Grady, on Bursville street.

If you are in need of a good pair of shoes I have them. I handle Wolf Bros. shoes for Ladies and Children. Every pair guaranteed to give satisfaction, if not I replace them.

W. L. WALKER.

LOUISVILLE CONFERENCE.

Over Two Hundred Ministers and Delegates Present.

A Splendid Body of Men and Business is Being Religiously Fanned, but the Season will go into

Next Week

THE BISHOP A PLEASING OFFICER.

It is not our intention to flatter or pay an unjust compliment, but stating plain facts as we see them we can truly say that the Louisville Conference of the M. E. Church, South, now in session in this town, is an intelligent body of men as the great business meetings of any denomination are able to assemble.

Walsh the Ministerialist Church does not demand as a prerequisite of entering of the Ministry, a collegiate education, yet it recognizes its worth, its power. Probably no other religious body is making greater progress along this line and the intelligence in length, breadth and depth as represented in this gathering is a high tribute to its attainment.

The days for the unlearned Minister are fast passing away; the field for his services are likewise disappearing. Facilities for gaining knowledge and the incentive for its acquisition have so thoroughly impressed the thoughtful mind that but few in any profession are willing to aspire for leadership without first seeking the advantage of a collegiate education or a special training in the line of their profession.

We note, with pleasure, that this Conference in general appearance, in ability and zeal is the equal of any representative assemblage of its size found in any country. The tendency and efforts of all religious organizations are to bring out and develop the strongest Ministry possible. Some of the greatest minds, in every age, have shed their luster in expounding the scriptures and no age equals ours in the display of extraordinary ability devoted to this the highest and most exalted calling or profession within the scope of human attainment. No one but a superior intellect could speak so degenerately of the ability and worth of the individuality of the members that comprise this Conference. Its all right.

The following is the important business of the session up to the time we go to press.

The Conference was convened at the Court-house Wednesday forenoon October 1, 1902, at 9 o'clock by Bishop H. C. Morrison, of Louisville. After song service and prayer the roll was called showing about two hundred ministers and delegates present.

Rev. Gross Alexander was elected Secretary, who is assisted by Rev. Joseph S. Chandler, John L. Kilgore, Jas. A. Chandler and W. F. Gordon.

The hour of meeting was fixed at 8 a. m. Adjournment 11:45.

The usual standing committees were selected to take charge of the work to come before the body.

The examination of young ministers which preceded the opening of Conference was highly satisfactory and several were advanced.

Bishop Morrison is a very pleasing preaching officer, and the ministers and delegates are perfectly delighted with the courteous manner in which he is pursuing the business.

THURSDAY MORNING.

A roll call showed almost a full attendance, there being only 12 or 15 falling to answer the call. The minutes of the first day were read and approved then came the regular order of business.

A very visiting brethren were introduced to the Conference by the passing of a resolution as follows: That the Conference set aside Saturday as the day for the consideration of the establishment of the Training School, heretofore mentioned in this paper, and that the hour for the introduction of this subject shall be 10 a. m.

The Report on Foreign Missions was read and showed a wonderful advancement in many of the fields, especially Japan and Cuba.

The Report on Educational matters revealed the fact that the Conference Endowment Fund, at present, amounts to over $25,000 which is so invested as to be safe and yielding fair returns.

Rev. Woodman, publisher of the Central Methodist was introduced. He made a pointed speech in which he reitred the causes of the publication and solicited the endorsement and patronage of the Methodist people of this Conference.

A motion was made to invite Rev. W. L. Mooman, a young man, to appear before the Conference and state his beliefs in the doctrines of the church. The motion was carried and the charge of ignoring church authority, to set forth his position. He appeared and made an explanation full an satisfactory and then a local minister was ordered, there being only one negative vote. Mr. Mooman's statement was impressive, setting forth the belief that he was intensely in earnest and desired to do the will of his Master and to stay under the jurisdiction of the Methodist church. The Bishop delivered a charge admonishing the young man of the importance and the consistency of staying within the limits of his obligations as set forth in the discipline.

Quite a discussion arose over the report of the committee rejecting the petition of Samuel A. McKay to be admitted to the ministry. A motion was made to over rule the Committee's decision.

It was recomitted and in the face of additional and satisfactory evidence he was received.

A resolution was offered and passed relieving the Examining Committee from examining applicants after their work has been done in its regular stated meeting. This is meant to stop applicants and to relieve the Committee from such work after Conference.

A call of the pastors and an inquiry into their work brought out the information that a large per cent of the churches are in a fine condition spiritually and financially.

Mr. John L. Wheat, layman of a Louisville church, was requested to make a statement concerning the condition of his church. He then called by the Bishop what is most needed, he replied: "More religion, more religion, a stronger desire to give money for the extension of church work in all its fields."

The report of Dr. Steel concerning Grand Female College, showed that a great work is being done in building up that institution that it is a school the pride, as well as a care of Methodist people.

Adjusted until Friday morning.

FRIDAY MORNING.

The session opened on time, but we are compelled to defer further proceedings until next issue.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE.

ADAM CIRCUIT COURT, KY. SALLIE DIDDLE, 8c, Plff. vs. E. D. Yates, 8c, Defn. 1. Equity.

By virtue of a Judgment and order of said Adam Circuit Court, rendered at the September term, heretofore in the above cause, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the late residence of C. C. Yates, near Gradyville, Kentucky, to the highest bidder, at Public Auction, on Thursday, the 10th day of October, 1902, at 10 o'clock, p. m. or thereabout upon a credit of six months the following described property, to-wit: A tract of land lying in Adams county Kentucky, on Big creek near Gradyville, containing 96 acres surveyed by B. J. Moore, 1891, which is now in said out and known as the Crest Yates farm.

For the purchase price the purchaser with approved surety or security must execute Bond, bearing legal interest from the day of Sale until paid, and having the force and effect of a judgment. Bidders will be required to comply promptly with these terms.

L. B. HURT, Master Commissioner.

A HOME AFFAIR.

Tuesday evening October 14, 1902, at the residence of Hon. J. F. Montgomery, this city, the marriage vows will be taken by Mr. B. E. Rowe and Miss Sallie Montgomery. Eld. W. K. Abill will perform the ceremony. The announcement of this approaching union will not come as a surprise to the many friends of the couple, as they have been known lovers for several years. The intended bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Montgomery. She is popular, intelligent and accomplished. The groom to be is a son of Adams county's best young men, a son of Mr. W. B. Rowe. May they live long and may the love of God abide with them, is the wish of the Adams County News.

KILLED AT JAMESTOWN.

Dr. U. G. Holder, a physician who resided in Jamestown for the past year, died Wednesday afternoon in a very unusual way. He was not feeling particularly well, but took that he got into trouble with Mr. Israel Stanton, who kicked him in the stomach.

The doctor died in five minutes and was buried yesterday in a few miles of Jamestown. Mr. Stanton is a very cunning man and has been afflicted for several years.

The Male and Female High School boys were again successful last Saturday afternoon. In a male game of base ball, played in Robertson's Park, this city, they defeated the Gradyville club, the score standing 4 to 3. It is claimed that the Columbia team can do any other club in this section of the State.

For cooking and heating stoves call on M. C. Winfrey.

Cold weather is approaching, you will need a stove. Call on M. C. Winfrey.

The attention of the ladies is called to the "ad" of Miss Birdie Powell in today's paper.

John T. Page sold to C. S. Harris a portion of his lot which has been used for a state yard, for $450.

Mrs. Maria Saline sold a small home, occupied by Mr. Torney Saline, a few days ago, to her sister, Miss Fannie Saline, for $300.

It is expected that the material for the new bridge which is to span Russell's creek at Wilson's mill, will begin to arrive in a few days.

Mr. W. F. Jeffries & Son will put in a full and complete line of hardware just as soon as their new store house is completed.

Don't postpone entering the M. & F. High School till the mercury drops to zero. Now is the time to start your son or daughter.

Keep an eye on the advancement of the school. The M. & F. High School. They are compelled to close out their own way.

Dr. W. B. Armstrong will be at Jamestown Oct. 30 to 25—circuit court week. Any one desiring first-class dental services should see him.

Mr. A. W. Pedigo, of Glasgow, will be in Columbia next Monday to buy some fat horses. He wants some small mules, from 11 to 12 hands high.

With an electric railway and the Methodist school together with the good school we now have Columbia would soon build beyond her corporate lines.

Students are entering the M. & F. High School daily and the indications are that it will be the largest school on sight for years.

Columbia is evidently improving faster than ever before known in its history. New residences and business houses are going up and building lots are in demand.

A great many passengers complain that the stage ride to and from Campbellsville is annoying, but we have heard several of our Methodist brethren complimenting the ride.

Come to our warehouse and see our big line of saddles, bridles, harness, etc. We will sell you same as close as the closest.

W. F. JEFFRIES & SON.

I am just receiving my Winter stock of Misses, Boys' and Children's clothing. I can save you money. Give me a look before you buy.

W. L. WALKER.

Mr. Lucian Moore's dwelling and all its contents were destroyed by fire last Sunday evening. Mr. Moore is an industrious young farmer and this is rather a serious matter but his pluck and energy will soon restate him.

Mr. W. R. Myers, proprietor of the Roller Mill, purchased of Mr. Jas. T. Page, three-fourths of the vacant lot opposite the residences of Dr. U. L. Taylor and Jo Nat Connor for $100.

Mr. Myers will erect a handsome residence and the work will begin at an early day.

The meeting at the Court-House Wednesday evening in the interest of the Epworth League, was very interesting. A number of speeches were made, giving the aim and purposes of the society, showing that it is doing a great work in bringing sinners to the fold of God. Many ministers who are now doing zealous work in the field received their early training in this League.

Mr. C. R. Hoskins, of Campbellsville, the contractor, arrived last Tuesday with his brick layers to resume work on the Jeffries building. As soon as this is completed he will build an eight room brick addition to the Marum Hotel. Mr. Hoskins thoroughly understands his business and when he binds adieu to the people of this town he will leave behind him some valuable monuments to his skill and reputation as a contractor of brick work.

Eld. W. K. Abill has been about several days in the interest of the coming electric railway line. Every little while he is being heard and there is scarcely a doubt about putting through the enterprise. We learn from Taylor county people who are very much interested, and that many of the capitalists of this county will take stock in the road. Mr. Abill is a gentleman who will continue to bring in news exactly what he is doing. The road will be built.

New - Millinery - Store

UNDER

New Management.

Having purchased Mrs. Emma T. Strange's stand, I am receiving every few days all the latest novelties in the millinery line. I have secured the services of Miss Margaret Baker, of Louisville, an experienced trimmer, and who is perfectly familiar with all the latest designs. I can please you in prices, style and quality of goods. I invite the ladies to call at my store.

BIRDIE POWELL.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Gradyville Lodge, No. 251, F. and A. M., passed the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, Almighty God, our Great Grand Master, has called our brother, G. W. Pickett, from his labors on earth to the celestial life above, after a long and useful life, having served us fourteen years as Master of our lodge, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Pickett, we have lost an earnest, faithful citizen and an esteemed brother, whose memory we will cherish, and whose deeds we will honor.

That the removal of our brother from our midst caused us to sorrow, and leave a wound that time can not heal.

That to his stricken family and relatives, we extend our sincere sympathy, and pray that God may be a husband to the widow and father to the orphan.

That a copy of these resolutions be spread on our minute book, one copy sent to the bereaved family of the deceased brother, and one to each of our county papers.

G. P. DILLON, G. T. FLOWERS, H. C. WALKER, Committee.

Spectator, please copy.

Remember that Eld. W. K. Abill will preach at the Presbyterian church, this city, the second Sunday, forenoon and evening.

The brick and lime for the addition to the Marum Hotel is being delivered and the laying of the foundation will begin in a very short time.

The Methodist people in general are zealous, earnest Christians but the present gathering—the Conference indicates that they are not wedded to the theory that lean stearns must eternally adorn the cheeks.

The finest lot of cattle seen in this town for many days, were brought in and weighed last week by W. B. and Ben Ed Rowe. They were fine steers and perfect work. They were contracted for some weeks ago. We do not remember the exact price.

The brick masons have reached the second story on W. F. Jeffries & Son's new building and if the weather continues fair the brick work will be completed in about two weeks. When finished it will be one of the most imposing business houses on the square.

A few weeks ago the Louisville Times made the statement that Mr. Geo. A. Edwards, of Green county, had killed eight men. The statement was incorrect and worried Mr. Ed, who was working on his living and there was a great deal of trouble.

Col. L. B. Hurt, representing the Columbia State Company, was in the News office yesterday. He stated that the company was in a very good way. There is a good demand for staves and prices are very fair. A great quantity is being manufactured throughout the county for different companies operating in this section of the State. There is yet a vast amount of uncut timber, and this source of business will continue to bring in revenue for many months. The Columbia State Company is directing its attention principally to French Cloves.

Scientific Shoeing.

I am ready to do Black Smithing of any kind, from horse shoeing to the repairing of the finest vehicles. I will make a specialty of shoeing horses with dressed hoofs and guarantee satisfaction. My shop is located back of livery, ask Barber & Robertson. Give me your work.

DOG AND WILDCAT.

Former No Match for the Latter When in the Water.

"Few dogs are capable of coping with a wildcat single-handed if the best happens to get to the water," said a man who is fond of the chase to a writer for the New Orleans Times-Democrat, "and I have seen more than one occasion. The wildcat is a good fighter under any circumstances. He is game to the end and as quick as a flash. 'Come have a way of wrapping themselves around a dog's head in the fight in an effort to smother the dog, and not a few instances I have seen them almost succeed in doing this very thing. They are hard to shake off when they get in this position. With the wildcat it is different. They fight at arms' length as a rule, and when they strike a dog's ear with their claws they cut like a knife. Once let a wildcat get in the water and the dog which tackles him is in for a good swift game, and if he gets off with his life he is lucky. I remember a rather striking illustration of the wildcat's method of fighting in water, and I came very near losing the best dog I had. The dog was one of the gamiest I ever saw. He was desperate and daring. We had one out on a wildcat chase some miles from Shreveport, and we finally struck a trail and the fun began. We had run the cat for some time, when he suddenly rushed out into a lagoon, where he growled a defiance which simply made the dogs wild. My game dog, plunged into the water after him. It was the fiercest fighting I ever saw. The little lagoon looked like a waterspout; spray was being sent in all directions and part of the time we could not see either the dog or the cat. When they would break away we could see the wildcat's method of fighting. He was trying to drown the dog. He would grab the dog's head and cause it under the water and attempt to hold it there, but the dog would always manage to get above water in some way, and then the battle would be on for a while again, cat and dog being completely lost in the splashing of the water. We allowed the cat to follow on for some time, in fact, until I began to get uneasy about my dog, for I knew from the outlook it was only a question of time before the cat would drown the dog. I rushed into the pool. This gave the more cautious dogs courage, and they went to the game fellow's rescue, and in a short time the cat was out of the struggle. But he came very near drowning the best dog I had."

BREVITIES OF FUN.

"What do you suppose is the secret of Mrs. Bland's social success?" "She always remembers exactly what to forget," Indianapolis News.

She—"Do you love me for my self alone, dearest?" He—"Of course I do. You don't suppose I want your mother about you all the time, do you?"—London Tri-Bite.

"If the boys will make my pay Saturday night, I'm going to quit and look for another job." "A sensible way to do would be to look for another job and then quit." "But you want to do it the other way." Indianapolis News.

Well Trained—Old Lady (to boy who has fetched her a glass of water)—"Thank you, my boy. You were very quick about it." Boy—"That's nothing, ma'am. I'm used to it. I had a job carrying water to elephants in a circus."—Pick-Me-Up.

"He's thinking of branching out as a theatrical manager this winter." "I didn't suppose he was fitted for that sort of thing." "Oh, yes. A relative of his who died recently left him a fortune."—Philadelphia Press.

BIRDS ARE BEE-EATERS.

They Only Consume Stingless Drones.

A gardener complains to me about the loss he sustains owing to the fondness of the pretty little bluebird for bees. "You'd never believe the lot that little chap snaps up, right off the board in front of the hive." The spotted flycatcher, a charming summer migrant, whose pretty nestling and feeding habits I have watched with great interest, and whom I have found to be a very confiding bird and one true to his old nesting-places, has also been unjustly libeled and persecuted for the same reason.

The fact is both these birds do take bees, but if the complaint was followed up the matter they would find that the birds dare not take a worker bee, because of its sting, and they only devour the stingless drones which are being turned out of the hive, or are destroyed by the working bees as no longer necessary to the economy of the hive, just at the time when flycatchers are wanting these fat drones to feed their young with.

The swarming season is then over. Instead of destroying the useful insects the birds are actually helping the workers. And so they are the best friends of the beekeeper.

The error of attributing the destruction of working bees to the action of birds is a very old one. In the fourth George, Virgil writes the following effect: "The blood-breasted swallow bears away in her beak the bees while on the wing, sweet morsels for her merciless young."

A writer in an old number of the Beekeeper's Journal says: "I saw a swallow fly up to another which was sitting on a telegraph wire and put something in its mouth and then go away; the other almost immediately dropped it. I found it to be a large drone."—Fall Mail Gazette.

ARE YOU TICKLISH?

Observer Puzzled to Know Why Some Are and Others Are Not.

"Why is it that one person is ticklish and another isn't?" asked a man who is fond of the unusual thing, of a New Orleans Times-Democrat man. "I have often wondered why men are differently constituted in this way, and have never seen any satisfactory answer up to this time. Some men cannot stand to be touched in the side. Others cannot stand to be touched on the knees. They 'treat sugar,' according to the nursery legend, and will simply have a fit if you should scrape the ends of your fingers over their knees. The bottom of the foot or the palm of the hand are tender places with other people. On the other hand, there are men who are not at all ticklish. I have seen tests made with straw about the ears and neck without any sort of disturbance. The subjects, too, were reasonably sensitive. I cannot say that they were not ticklish to some extent, for I know that many of them were. But they were not ticklish. As a rule the man whose skin is thin is the ticklish man, but there are the usual exceptions to this rule. I suppose it is a matter involving the nervous constitution, and if persons are unusually ticklish I guess it is due to the fact that the sense of touch is more keenly developed at the particular parts of the body which are peculiarly sensitive. I can account for the vast difference in persons in this respect in no other way. It is simply a question of a highly developed sense of touch."

NEPHEW AND THE TRAMP.

I cannot resist here telling a story concerning Chauncey Depew, writes Jo Mitchell Chapple, in the National Magazine. It is too good to be original, but the Senator must be told, just as Lincoln was in the anecdote of a past period. A tramp met the Senator and asked him in that easy, velvet-tongued way.

"Would you kindly assist a," etc, Chauncey, of course, is an easy mark, and as he fanned himself after extracting the quarter, the tramp inquired: "And who may I say was so kind-hearted?"

"Oh, never mind. That's all right." "But in after years, when I recall those whose tender hearts?"

"Never mind, my good fellow!"

"Then I cannot accept it, sir. I must let my friends know." "Well, tell 'em it was Grover Cleveland, and let it go at that."

The tramp put the quarter back in his pocket leisurely and shook his head.

"Now, my good fellow," said the Senator, "may I ask your name?"

"A gentleman in distress is both a caution."

"Yes, but if I have your name, I may be able to help you."

"No, my pride will not permit."

"But allow me to know whom I have had the pleasure of meeting in this happy way."

"Oh, well, tell 'em it was Chauncey Depew, and let it go at that."

Chauncey faced himself and let it go.

LARGEST TREE.

A few weeks ago there was discovered to the Press in the Sierra the biggest tree in the world. At that time it was said to have measured 180 feet in circumference.

John Muir, the great naturalist, has just visited the tree and reports that it measures at its base only 100 feet and at four feet above the ground was only 91 feet in circumference.

This is, however, larger than either the "General Sherman" or "General Grant," which heretofore were recognized as the forest.

A Baltimore dispatch says that the name of Admiral Schley is the Democratic nominee in Maryland this year. If every candidate for congress this year, and inquiry are addressed: "The name of Admiral Schley was trusted by the Republicans for a handful of political jobs. Are you for or against Schley?" If he answers "No," the negative, he ought to be urged away from it.

The Kansas City Star says that Parson Washburn, of Oyster Bay, who made the now notorious sermon before President Roosevelt, is like a man who arose at a funeral in a Missouri town and announced that "if no person had anything to say about the departed he would like to make a few remarks about the free college of aliver."

J. P. Morgan & Co. notified the shareholders of the various companies and corporations for which they act as fiscal agents that they would accept of the offer of a new and improved plan of the company in advance of the regular time. To management is estimated well approximately $100,000,000. The return is taken to have a strong financial basis.

It is stated that into a family of eleven children in Warren county, one of whom, Mr. Moses Potter, died last week at the advanced age of nearly ninety-five years, death did not intrude during a period of sixty-three years. Probably in all the United States there is not another instance of equal time between the calls of this most unwelcome of visitors.

It is reported that President Roosevelt has determined to make the Panama canal commission a purely military body. The army is to build the canal. The man for the head of the commission must be a man in whom the President has unlimited faith. That man is General Leonard Wood, his boon companion and comrade in arms.
